Reviews From Schools

With over 30 years of experience hosting tens of thousands of students, we'll not only make your Experience memorable and rewarding, we'll work to make your reservation as easy as possible to book and execute. Many of our tour guides are retired teachers and our dedicated staff is committed to create authentic, accurate, and meaningful educational experiences. Of the hundreds of school groups who visited us in 2016 to experience an introduction to Amish history and culture, here are but a few recent reviews ...

I did this tour for the first time in 1997. It is still as wonderful as it was the first time.
